

The Unfunny Truth About SCIENTOLOGY

"Somebody someday will say 'THIS IS ILLEGAL.'"

By then, be sure the [ScIENTOLOGY Organisations] decide what is legal or not."

L. Ron Hubbard, founder of Scientology

Why protest the Church of Scientology? When most people think of Scientology they think of Tom Cruise jumping on sofas and South Park parodies. But the reality is that the Church is a greedy and dangerous international corporation.

We freely provide you with this information and we ask you to investigate and discover for yourself the unfunny truth about the Church of Scientology.

Just Google any of these terms:

OPERATION FREAKOUT

Journalist Paulette Cooper wrote a book critical of Scientology in 1969. After its publication the Church started a program of harassment - including slander, false bomb threats and 19 lawsuits - that almost put Cooper in a federal prison, financially destroyed her, and nearly drove her to suicide.

FAIR GAME POLICY

In 1965, Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard wrote that critics were "Fair Game" and "May be deprived of property or injured by any means by any Scientologist without any discipline of the Scientologist. May be tricked, sued, lied to or destroyed."

THE QUEEN v. CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY TORONTO

In 1992 seven members were convicted of breaching public trust as a result of evidence collected for the OPERATION SNOW WHITE trial. During the investigation of the Church's activities in Ontario, documents stolen from public and private agencies were recovered, as well as information on other covert activities in Canada.

In Canada, the Church is a registered "Religious Non-Profit" organisation. The goal behind today's protests around the world is to bring these details to light and hope that the public will be able to persuade Governments around the world to revoke the Church of its legal protections. Please contact your government officials!

OPERATION SNOW WHITE

In the 1970's, the Church of Scientology coordinated massive raids on US Federal Offices to steal or destroy documents unfavourable of the Church. Over 5000 operatives took part in the raids, which included infiltrating the IRS. 11 executives of the Church were convicted, including L. Ron Hubbard's wife.

LISA McPHERSON

A former Scientologist who suffered psychological trauma after a car accident. Because Scientologists firmly oppose psychological treatment, McPherson was instead placed in isolation and slowly died under Church care. The autopsy revealed death by dehydration / starvation and her body was covered in bed sores and cockroach bites.

LARGEST LIBEL AWARD IN CANADA

The Church brought criminal contempt charges against the Crown attorney of the 1992 trial, which were found to be completely untrue and without foundation. The Crown attorney subsequently launched and won a libel lawsuit and was awarded 1.6 million dollars, the largest libel award in Canadian history.

The Unfunny Truth About SCIENTOLOGY

"Somebody someday will say 'THIS IS ILLEGAL.'"

By then, be sure the [ScIENTOLOGY Organisations] decide what is legal or not."

L. Ron Hubbard, founder of Scientology

Why protest the Church of Scientology? When most people think of Scientology they think of Tom Cruise jumping on sofas and South Park parodies. But the reality is that the Church is a greedy and dangerous international corporation.

We freely provide you with this information and we ask you to investigate and discover for yourself the unfunny truth about the Church of Scientology.

Just Google any of these terms:

OPERATION FREAKOUT

Journalist Paulette Cooper wrote a book critical of Scientology in 1969. After its publication the Church started a program of harassment - including slander, false bomb threats and 19 lawsuits - that almost put Cooper in a federal prison, financially destroyed her, and nearly drove her to suicide.

FAIR GAME POLICY

In 1965, Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard wrote that critics were "Fair Game" and "May be deprived of property or injured by any means by any Scientologist without any discipline of the Scientologist. May be tricked, sued, lied to or destroyed."

THE QUEEN v. CHURCH OF SCIENTOLOGY TORONTO

In 1992 seven members were convicted of breaching public trust as a result of evidence collected for the OPERATION SNOW WHITE trial. During the investigation of the Church's activities in Ontario, documents stolen from public and private agencies were recovered, as well as information on other covert activities in Canada.

In Canada, the Church is a registered "Religious Non-Profit" organisation. The goal behind today's protests around the world is to bring these details to light and hope that the public will be able to persuade Governments around the world to revoke the Church of its legal protections. Please contact your government officials!

OPERATION SNOW WHITE

In the 1970's, the Church of Scientology coordinated massive raids on US Federal Offices to steal or destroy documents unfavourable of the Church. Over 5000 operatives took part in the raids, which included infiltrating the IRS. 11 executives of the Church were convicted, including L. Ron Hubbard's wife.

LISA McPHERSON

A former Scientologist who suffered psychological trauma after a car accident. Because Scientologists firmly oppose psychological treatment, McPherson was instead placed in isolation and slowly died under Church care. The autopsy revealed death by dehydration / starvation and her body was covered in bed sores and cockroach bites.

LARGEST LIBEL AWARD IN CANADA

The Church brought criminal contempt charges against the Crown attorney of the 1992 trial, which were found to be completely untrue and without foundation. The Crown attorney subsequently launched and won a libel lawsuit and was awarded 1.6 million dollars, the largest libel award in Canadian history.

SCIENTOLOGY
KILLS

theunfunnytruth.ytmnd.com
xenutv.com • xenu.net

SCIENTOLOGY
KILLS

theunfunnytruth.ytmnd.com
xenutv.com • xenu.net

