- Complete Schedule 11, Tuition, education, and textbook amounts, to calculate the federal amount you can claim on line 323 of Schedule 1, Federal Tax; the maximum amount you can transfer to a designated individual; and the amount, if any, you can carry forward to a future year.
- Also complete provincial or territorial Schedule (S11), if you resided in a province or territory other than Quebec on December 31, to calculate the provincial or territorial amount you can claim on line 5856 of Form 428; the maximum amount you can transfer to a designated individual; and the amount, if any, you can carry forward to a future year.
- You can claim a full-time education amount if you were enrolled in a qualifying educational program as a full-time student. Such a program lasts at least three consecutive weeks and requires a minimum of 10 hours of course instruction or work each week in the program (excluding study time). For more information on this and on the textbook amount, see Guide P105, Students and Income Tax, at www.cra.gc.ca/forms.
- You can claim a part-time education amount if you were enrolled in a specified educational program. Such a program lasts at least three consecutive weeks and requires a minimum of 12 hours of instruction or work each month on courses in the program.
- You can claim a full-time education and textbook amount if you were enrolled as a part-time student in a qualifying educational program and you qualify for the disability amount, or you could not be enrolled full time in such a program because of a mental or physical impairment, as certified by a medical doctor, optometrist, audiologist, occupational therapist, psychologist, speech-language pathologist, or physiotherapist.
  - If you qualified for the part-time education amount for 2014 and you still meet the eligibility requirements in 2015, you do not need to send a new Form T2201, Disability tax credit certificate, to claim the full-time education amount.
  - If this is a new claim, you must submit a completed and certified Form T2201, Disability tax credit certificate to claim the full-time education amount.
  - If you could not be enrolled full-time in a qualifying educational program because of a mental or physical impairment, you must submit a signed letter from a medical doctor, optometrist, audiologist, occupational therapist, psychologist, speech-language pathologist, or physiotherapist, stating this.
- For information on the unused current-year tuition, education, and textbook amounts you can transfer, see line 323 in your General Income Tax and Benefit Guide and, if applicable, line 5856 in the provincial or territorial pages of your forms book.

Complete this area if you were enrolled in an institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada:
